7569	A $4,000 credit towards NuWool premium cellulose insulation including install in your exisitng home or fro new construction. Distributed and Donated by David BOSTICK - NuWool is paper treated with borax a mold, inhibitor and fire retardant it will not burn. NuWool started in 1949 and is the go to insulation in Alaska in Canada. For an average 1500 square-foot house it saves about 39 trees by recycling paper. It will repel, mice, insects, spiders, silverfish, and all types of critters and by the way, its organic and pure. Great for sound barrier and fire barrier. It has saved hundreds of families by being installed in bedrooms were new had been put in the bedroom walls. New offers a 10 year guarantee where they project your utilities and if it goes over new will pay half of the overage for 10 years. NuWool is great for people with allergies cause you're not breathing in little particles of fiberglass and or foam fumes. Older homes can be treated also if your home is 15 years old or older your insulation is about gone David's crew with a computer can tell you how much is left. One rule to remember is 30% of your utilities go out through your attic 20% in your living space and 10% through the floor that's why new will put in our 41 in your attic and adds Duro vents for air movement. See videos on YouTube and look at test from independent companies. https://nuwool.com/ . They all say say NuWool is the best.	David Bostick	$4,000.00	4	RV
